

TRANSFORMERS Gala Evening Sir John Soane's Museum Foundation 14 May 2013 · New York City

The amazing space of 583 PARK was further enhanced by a handsome full-wall projection of a J. M. Gandy tribute to Soane. In 1818, Joseph Gandy exhibited a pictorial tribute to Soane, which is brimming over with more than 100 or so architectural buildings of the architect's lifework.

SOANE FOUNDATION HONORS

were presented to

FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT FOUNDATION ARCHIVES PARTNERSHIP

and

NORMAN FOSTER – LORD FOSTER OF THAMES BANK OM

Left to Right: Catherine Ingraham, Frank Lloyd Wright's great-granddaughter and a professor of architecture and urban design at Pratt, helped present the bronze awards to Carole Ann Fabian, the director of the Avery Library, and Barry Bergdoll, The Philip Johnson Chief Curator in MoMA's department of architecture and design, for their role in conceiving and realizing the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation Archives Partnership. The Soane Foundation hopes to raise awareness of the Partnership as a unique model for conserving and opening up historic archives to the public. NYC Cultural Affairs Commissioner Kate D. Levin also helped to present the award.

Left to right: Paul Goldberger, toastmaster, Susie Magee, Gala Committee Co-Chair and Elena and Norman Foster. The Soane Foundation Honors was presented to Lord Foster for his forty years of excellence in architecture and design.

GO TO > www.SoaneFoundation.com/gala.html
for more photos and links to press on the event.

