Sir John Soane's Museum Foundation was established in 1991 to provide a lively forum in the fields architecture, design, decorative arts and the arts within the Soanean tradition. In recent years, the Foundation completed a campaign that established the new John A. and Cynthia Fry Gunn Conservation Centre at the Soane Museum that opened as part of the Opening Up The Soane project. Ongoing conservation funding for a conservators position and related projects continue to be the core of our mission to financially assist Sir John Soane's Museum. Additionally, this summer we launched the Fill the Brexit Gap! campaign to provide match funding for a needed amount for endowment.

Sir John Soane enjoyed a long distinguished career as an architect, teacher and collector. When he died in 1837, he left his London home, located at Lincoln's Inn Fields, to the nation. Sir John Soane's Museum is internationally recognized as the best house-museum in the world. It is a masterpiece - where ideas, form, function, light and space blend to create a magical harmony - or as Soane himself described it "the poetry of art and architecture."

Sir John Soane's Museum is again experiencing a very exciting year as the final phase of the Opening Up The Soane restoration project is completed, revealing all of Soane's lost spaces. Since last year's opening of the private apartments and the architectural model room, the Museum has been flooded with visitors wishing to see these restored spaces as this is the first time in 160 years that they have been open to the public. Note - if planning on going to London, please pre-book a tour at www.soane.org

Inspired by Soane -is Sir John Soane's Museum's initiative to invite contemporary responses to Soane's magnificent collection. During his lifetime, Soane's vision was to stimulate creativity in his contemporaries; two centuries later Inspired by Soane continues this tradition, commissioning a diverse range of new work from some of the most accomplished and creative talents working today. 2016 marks the third year since the launch of - Inspired by Soane: Brand Licensing - showcasing our Licensing Partners' unique range of interiors products, from wall murals to fireplaces.
